

It is outrageous that the power of a huge media corporation like Sinclair has become so great that it can try with impunity to sway the presidential election by airing a blatantly biased anti-Kerry documentary. I urge the FCC to rescind its license if it follows through with this assault on democracy and abuse of the public airways.